

Avi Z. Kestenbaum is a Partner and Co-Chair of the Trusts and Estates Department, Chair of the Tax Exempt Organizations Department, and a member of the Tax Department of Meltzer, Lippe, Goldstein & Breitstone, LLP with offices in New York City, Long Island and Florida. The Trusts and Estates Department that he co-chairs has approximately 35 professionals and is ranked nationally Tier #1 by U.S. News and World Report. Avi provides creative and sophisticated domestic and international tax, estate and charitable planning, and asset preservation counsel to CEOs of major corporations, ultra-high net worth individuals, multinational businesses, and large charitable organizations and he has a substantial international estate and tax practice as well. He is often quoted in Forbes, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, USA Today, Investor's Business Daily, and other major publications. He is an ACTEC Fellow, and is listed in Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers in America. He has published dozens of articles in leading national tax, estate planning and tax-exempt organization publications, including, among others, Estate Planning Journal, Trusts and Estates, Leimberg's Newsletter, Practical Tax Strategies, Journal of Taxation of Exempts, and The New York Law Journal, Special Trusts and Estates Section. He is also an adjunct tax and trusts and estates Professor at Hofstra University School of Law School (and formerly an adjunct Professor with the Baruch College MBA Program), teaching four different tax and trusts and estates courses. He is also a member of Trusts and Estates Magazine's Editorial Board, where he chairs the Modern Practice Committee.

